DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On September 26, 2017, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that after receiving the trivalent influenza vaccine on October 12, 2015, she suffered the Table Injury of shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”). Petition at ¶ 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On December 7, 2018, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for her SIRVA. On December 20, 2018, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $160,233.27, representing compensation in the amount of $157,500.00 for pain and suffering and in the amount of $2,733.27 for petitioner's past out-of-pocket medical expenses. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access. Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, undersigned is required to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $160,233.27, representing compensation in the amount of $157,500.00 for pain and suffering and in the amount of $2,733.27 for actual unreimbursable expenses in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Cris D. Salazar. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
